

Monday Music Nights at the Sorrel Horse Shottisham

Autumn /Winter 2014/5 Programme

Why not spend Monday evenings inn at the Sorrel Horse? Our music nights are generally acoustic, and are of varying genre to cover all tastes.

All start at 8.30.

Entrance will be free but we would appreciate your generous contributions to reward our booked guests.

September 15th : Fern Teather Band

We are very excited to start our Autumn programme with the upcoming Fern Teather Band. The very talented Fern has a lovely voice and an excellent finger picking style. The band's bassist is Carl Scott with percussion from Sam Thurlow. They play "modern folk-rock" music. To cap it all, the band has its alter-ego "Elephant in the Room" playing as well. Same line up but with Carl taking the lead.

For a preview visit www.fernteather.com/

October 13th : Rosewood

Rosewood (formally known as Half-Crown Street) run the Hadleigh Music nights and feature Simon and Val Haines playing a range of interesting - and different - musical instruments, and Phil Lyons on guitar and vocals. All very accomplished musicians and also members of the well known French band Bof! and the ceilidh dance Hosepipe Band.

November 10th : Wheres Spot Band

The band who hail from Chelmsford, have an eclectic repertoire covering a very wide range of musical influences. We can expect to hear sophisticated folk guitar work, subtle jazz inspired bass lines, infectious rhythms, topped by their superb vocal harmonies and entertaining presentation. A band who will appeal to all musical tastes!

For a preview visit www.wheresspotband.com/

December 8th : Chasing Storms

A well known local band, we have Mike Hynes and Kelly Pritchard performing jazz, flamenco, and folk.

At the heart of their sound is a delicate blend of Mike's intricate guitar patterns and Kelly's captivating vocals. Reflective lyrics, subtle arrangements and highly accomplished musicianship complete their unique style. They are also well known for covering a large repertoire of both classic and contemporary Jazz pieces.

For a preview visit www.chasingstorms.co.uk/

January 12th : Locals Evening

A chance to see some of our local talent performing more than just a couple of songs. Should be a varied and interesting evening with (at least!): Bitter Thorn, others TBA.

February 9th : Joy Spring

Welcome return of the classic jazz band, Joy Spring. They are a quartet who play well known jazz music by such composers as Gershwin, Cole Porter, Clifford Brown, etc. They play piano, saxophone, bass, and percussion. A really relaxing evening is in store.

March 9th : Hare's Breath

Back by popular demand, this fantastic quartet are not to be missed. Keith Tyrrell, Ade Brown, Peter Hughes and vocalist Mary-Jane Tyrrell play a wide range of instruments on both traditional and contemporary material. Mary-Jane wins new admirers at every gig with her fabulous pure vocal tones.

For a preview visit www.haresbreath.co.uk

So please look in the press for details of the Autumn programme, or keep looking at the Sorrel Horse website: www.thesorrelhorse.com.

If you would like to book a floor spot for any evening then please email chris@jigdolls.co.uk